

Jada Paisley
Executive Director,
Michigan Golf Course Association

Jada serves as Executive Director for the Michigan Golf Course Association, the state's association for the business of golf. Representing owners and operators of golf courses in Michigan, the MGCA is the "voice of Michigan golf business" and Paisley leads the group in advocacy, education and promotion of the industry.

Prior to joining MGCA in 2007 she was in hospitality sales and has a B.A. in Hospitality Business from Michigan State University. Jada is passionate about serving the members of the MGCA and educating others on how Michigan golf impacts all communities.
